

e-learning

Management by objectives

It is impossible to imagine a management tool without management by means of objectives. However, a rethink is necessary to ensure meaningful and effective use of the tools to motivate your employees. Learn how to manage by objectives in a structured and effective way to increase the success of your employees and entire team. Group of participants: Managers and project leaders.

Duration: approx. 45 minutes

Language: 💳 💥

Learning objectives

- Know the benefits of targeted objectives for managers and employees
- Know which steps lead to optimal targeted objectives
- Know the difference between performance and development objectives
- Learn how to prepare target agreement discussions and how to conduct them in a structured manner
- Learn how to increase your employees' acceptance and commitment to target agreements

Contents

What are the pros and cons of target agreements?

How do I prepare for discussions on target agreements?

What types of objectives are there?

How do I create a target agreement process?

How do I formulate really good objectives?

How do I respond to resistance?

How can I ensure success?

How do I deal with mistakes?

How can I avoid forgetting the training contents?

