

e-learning

Teamwork in hybrid teams

In many teams, there is no longer a fixed form of work. In so-called hybrid teams, work is sometimes done from home and at other times in the company's offices. This presents managers with completely new challenges.

In this video training course, Sandra Krönner, a trainer specialising in leaders and liveable organisations, guides you in forming a real hybrid team that is able to successfully masters the constant change from one setting to the other.

Group of participants:

For all those who work in hybrid teams and want to strengthen their teamwork. Form a real hybrid team and master the change from one to the other setting more successfully.

Duration: approx. 1 hour

Language:

Learning objectives

- ✓ which working attitude and which leadership style are essential in hybrid working;
- ✓ what role task type and personality type play in hybrid working; and
- ✓ how to make sense of the setting, both online and offline.

Contents

Embracing change

Developing an understanding for one another

Creating a connection

Supporting one another

Learning from one another incidentally

Redesigning the environment – offline

Redesigning the environment – online

Addressing conflict in a hybrid way

Hybrid onboarding

Information on the web www.haufe-akademie.de/el

Let us advise you
Tel. +49 761 595339-10 • digitales-lernen@haufe-akademie.de